Remember Any Fist Blows.

the Defense Hearing.

on the Head with a Strap.

The State Board of Charities appear cruelty to over 150 victims.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

Boarders' Day. to-morrow will get for you.

That Winter's Board

14 words in all the Worlds, all day, for 30 cents.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1894.

EDWARDS RECALLED.

Sworn by the Defense in Police Capt. Stephenson's Trial.

But His Testimony Proves to Be Considerable of a Boomerang.

lerchants' Books and Additiona Evidence Produced.

The trial of Police Capt. John Thomas stephenson, of the Mulberry street staon, for alleged extortion from comnission merchants for unlawful use of mand at the Leonard street station, was resumed before the Police Commissioners at Headquarters to-day.

'clock, the Commissioners were not There were still rumors about future trials, but the Commissioners were not ommunicative on that question. Mr.

"Whether any other Captain will be ne in a matter entirely in the hands of he Commissioners. Personally, I am of ners would clash with the proceedings of the Lexow Committee. days ago that the Committee would sit Sept. 10, next Monday, and would adfourn only for a few days at a time cution.

Mr. Shafer made the usual motion for dismissal and put in half the book of Police Rules, giving the number of each section in argument on his motions, all

Thorne stood by during this conversation with Collier, but Edwards did not recognize him.
"Did you say to Collier that Capt.
Stephenson had tried to break Thorne, or have him transferred to some uptown precinct." Mr. Vincent asked.
Edwards didn't remember. He thought he had said something like that to some one some time. He wasn't sure whether it was at 32 Harrison street.
"Didn't Thorne, who stood by, sneak up then and say, 'Why, Capt. Stephenson never tried to break me?"
"Well, yes, I believe he did."
"What else was said?" Mr. Wellman demanded. "Let's have it all."
"As I went out, Thorne said: 'Don't mention my name before the Commisstoners. I was sent down to your place to order fruit, and that's all I know about it, Don't get me into this now.
Just leave my name out of it,'" promptly replied the merchant, thoroughly indignant that his veracity should be imn, peachet.

Mr. Shafer storned and blustered his Shafer stormed and blustered his tions, but the whole answer got on ---

NOT TRUE, SAYS WELLMAN. EUrnies that He Offered Police Sergt

ells a pretty story, in which he alleges Assistant District-Attorney Wellshan offered him a $20 bill as a bribe for terforming his duty as a police officer

It was while Jordan was acting Capain at the West Forty-seventh street

DISCHARGED. SAW A PAGDLE USED. MORE CARS WANTED.

Characters of Mrs. Ludweina But Keeper McNish Does Not Overcrowding Is an Outrage to Rhein and Sister Vindicated.

Special Sessions.

Three Justices, sitting in the Court of characters of Mrs. Ludweina Rhein and her sister, Burga Liekner, who, as told exclusively in "The Evening World," were arrested Aug. 24 by Polleemen

Robert G. Wildermauer and Frederick

Carson, of Capt. Pickett's East Eighty-eighth street squad, on a trumpel-up charge of having conducted a disorderly ise at 231 East Ninety-fourth street The discharge of the defendants court of law was the only possible result of an attempt to blacken the character of two respectable women, whose daily lives were known to a host out blot or blemish. crowded this forenoon by friends o the accused women, who were drawn thither Hoppe, Keepers Sam Semple and Bur-

Justice Solon B. Smith presided on the ceman Carson corroborated his

HENRY IRVING SENDS $500.

received the following cablegram:

Asks that It Be Used for a Forest Fire Relief Fund. Acting Mayor McClellan this morning

To the Mayor of New York:

I beg that you will use $500 rabled herewith for a locat fire relief tund. With my deepost regrets. Col. McClellan had decided before he eceived the English actor's contribution to appoint a committee to receive funds for the sufferers in the devastated district. He will receive all donations for that purpose and will see to t that they are forwarded to the proper authorities. He will name a committee to take charge of the matter later.

LYNCHING IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

Mrs. Bone's Assailant Hanged by a Mob Near Watertown. (By Associated Press.)

WATERTOWN, S. D., Sept. 4.-The man Bourke, who assaulted Mrs. Bone here some days ago, was caught yesterday.

As the officers were bringing him back dem in recovering an heirloom stolen a year here, last evening, he was taken from he ake from Emma Juch, now Mrs. Well-them by a mob and hanged to an electhem by a mob and hanged to an elec-tric light pole.

WILL USE COKE.

Soft Coal No Longer Burned in N. Y., N. H. and H. RR. Yard Engines. The Superintendent of the New York on President Wilson, of the Board of Health, to-day and said that hereafter coke instead of soft coal would be used in the yard engined.

"I interested a ward detective and later the lewel was recovered. But I beyer offered 130 to Jordan or any one cise, so the story is without real foundation."

The Health Board of the Board of the Health Board is Investigating complaints that soft coal is being used in furnaces at a number of places.

You read The Evening World: New Haven and Hartford Railroad called the Travelling Public.

Premptly Acquitted in the Court of Testifies in Brockway's Favor at Not Only a Discomfort, but a Menace

Had Plenty of Witnesses, but They He Admits that Victims Were Struck Greedy Corporations Show Indifference to People's Welfare.

> Brockway and his Board of Managers | It has been said by unblased judges that of the Elmira Reformatory began this residents of New York are willing to morning, at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, submit with their defense in the second investigation position and interference with what may of the mismanagement of the institution be regarded as their common rights by and of the inhuman treatment of its both public and private corporations > condemned Brockway at the nature of the average citizen of this managers are on trial for argiect of length of time without making a kick. relis of the Reformatory as James Laz-convenience are being curtailed. The endy, a keeper, was a conspicuous fig-only trouble is that very often it has ure in the corridors of the hotel, the happened that, grumble as much as they peculiarity of his carriage, with his may, the evil is not remedied.

> elevated shoulders and dropped chin. The result is that they are compelled mirasting strongly with his surround- to submit to these impositions because dette Spencer and Dr. W. C. Wey, President, and James B. Rathbone, of the Roard of Managers, and J. B. Staneb> field, counsel, came down from Elmira panies of New York have been gather The defense, it is said, will endcayor coffers at the expense of their patron to make light of the evidence against without giving them in return the acthem, and in denuit of witnesses to refute the charges of brutality, so fully tled, proven by "The World," will try to all the main lines in the city during sept. 10, next Monday, and would adjourn only for a few days at a time works in the Tombe Prison, tottered to the bord of using the when the case we witnesses desired by the committee, but I do not know the feeling of the Commissioners.

"We have cases partially prepared against four police capitains, and against several ward detectives, but I cannot give the names of the accused." At the adjournment Priday Mr. Wellman had said that the case for the prosecution against Capt. Stephenson, which adjusts the books of Lavy M. Lyon, commission when the books of Lavy M. Lyon, commission which had not been been also been the counted. The stand, He gave his testimony that he agreed to my any of the companion of the counted that he agreed to my any of the counted that he agreed to my any of the counted that he agreed to my any of the counted that he agreed to the stand. He gave his testimony that he agreed to my any of the counted that he agreed to my any of the counted that he agreed to the stand. He gave his testimony that he agreed to my any of the counted that he agreed to the stand. He gave his testimony that he agreed to my any of the counted that he agreed to the stand. He gave his testimony that he agreed to have a veer," said Mr. Wellman.

Supit. Bypnes was called to show that he greed to have the provided that the counters of the counter of the coun and the trouble will become more and was not at all satisfied with the policemon.

Mr. Edwards said he did not tell Coller "I am going to do Stephenson up."

He did ask Coller "By the way, what has become of Ous Thorne, who used to ing to Edwards, cane to him and left a card bearing Capt. Stephenson's name and address on it in 1891, the day after [Lam going to do Stephenson up."

Torne is the policeman who, according to Edwards, cane to him and left a card bearing Capt. Stephenson's name and address on it in 1891, the day after [Lam going to do Stephenson's name and address on it in 1891, the day after [Lam going capt.]

The replied that Thorne was dead,"

"Collier replied that Thorne was dead,"

Then, the witness was asked to look at a young police officer sitting behind him in court. Edwards blushed and said he had been told that this was Gus Thorne.

"I called him Harry at that time, when he came to me in March, 1891, I didn't know his name," said Edwards.

"I called him Harry at that time, when he came to me in March, 1891, I didn't know his name," said Edwards.

The refrigerator. The policemen drank the beer and were temperately to go the men still refreshed that know his name," said Edwards.

The norm and told him the Captain must have some fruit in lieu of money.

"I called him Harry at that time, when he came to me in March, 1891, I didn't know his name," said Edwards.

The norm and told that this was Gus Thorne, who have a passenger has once paid his repaired that who had been told that this was Gus Thorne.

"I called him Harry at that time, when he came to me in March, 1891, I didn't know his name," said Edwards.

The policemen drank the witness was asked to look at a young police officer sitting behind him in court. Edwards blushed and said he had been told that this was Gus Thorne, who have a large extent in going about the battery seldom. I never saw that the stream the policemen drank the policem

Hosen, Meyers or Kinney, in the department of which he was in charge.

"You know it was a long time ago and I can't recall everything that occurred," said he.

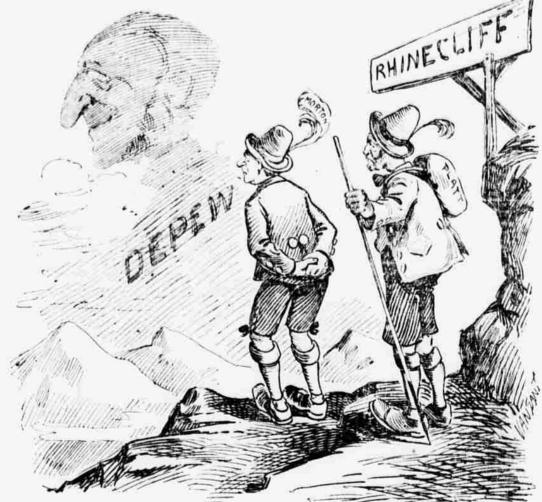

The witness described the solitary confinement cells with two rings in the floor to which prisoners were handcuffed. He had known of immates to be confined in the cells for four or five days, but could not remember that any of them had been there for six days or more.

Two-thirds of the time while he was at the Reformatory it was his duty to be present at the punishment of inmates.

"You have seen Brockway strike in-

(Continued or Second Page.)

SEEN AT RHINECLIFF-ON-THE-HUDSON.

The Political Reproduction of the Spectre of the Brocken, eral Sessions, with a Speech.

Grand Jury Roll Call the First Was Trying to Use a Jimmy on a Business Transacted.

Date for the Formal Dedication Not Yet Fixed.

The new Criminal Court-House filled up early this morning with lawyers and sightseers and busy court officials and In the corridors and poked their head into the sacred precincts of the Judges private chambers, and got into rooms again. Everybody was lost in the new milding, and each was asking the other now to get somewhere, the locality of rigiding of Sighes' over Franklin street. Miss Annic Salistren, the Janitrees, was in the from the Tombs to the new Criminal Court-House and locked up in the prisoners' pen at the Court-House end of the bridge. They were the first batch of prisoners to make the trip which for many years to come will be taken by criminals of all sorts and conditions. They were in couples—handended to gether—and they were led by a base from the house and run up Sixtien the house and run up Sixtien the house and run up Sixtien couples—handended to gether—and they were led by a base from the house and run up Sixtien couples—handended to gether—and they were led by a base from the house and run up Sixtien the house and run up Sixtien couples—handended to gether—and they were led by a base from the house and run up Sixtien the policeman gave chase, and was politically the policeman gave chase, and was politically the political the house of house the political the house and run up Sixtien the political the house and run up Sixtien the house the politic was a way and at the politic the politic the politic the politic the politic the politic than the house and run up Sixtien the politic the politic the politic than the house and run up Sixtien the first politic the politic than the politic the politic than the po the Grand Jurymen yet to be sworn in and a favored few spectators, they filled the large room.

It was it it o'clock when the court officers called for silence and "hats off," and then Recorder Smyth and Judges Cowing, Martine and Fizgerald walked into the court-room from the judges' chambers. District-Attorney Fellows followed them and took his place in front of the bench, surrounded by his assistants, Davis, McIntyre, Battle, Lindsay and Townsend.

As soon as court was opened District-Attorney Fellows rose and addressed the four Judges, He said.

"Your Honors, it is proper, in my judgment, that in the opening of a building such as this, which by destined perhaps to be the scene of the criminal business of this county for a century to come, appropriate ceremonies should be held. But it is impossible that such servence are certain formalities which are necessary before this building can be deligated for all the public purposes for which it is to be used. At that time there will be formal and appropriate ceremonies."

Col. Fellows asked that the Judges and Lew days, as the tapers and resolute the District-Attorney's office were still in a mixed up state, owing to their removal to the new building.

Receiver Stayth rose to reply to Col. Fellows, ite said that he agreed with all that the District-Attorney had said, and that he hoped when the proper that should arrive there would be formal and impressive dedicatory ceromonies in which his Mexic, the Superior Charledges and other Judge would hence the occasion by their presence ranges Martine, Coving and Fitzgerall them left the court-room and the rest of the Grand Jury for the September term was ralled, this being the list red countries ever transacted in the new initialing.

the first lawyer's fee to be maid in the "Premier Brand" California wince and brandis, produced from best varieties of foreign grapes, legisl to double-print imported wince. Parint Chant Wins to. 512 Brandway, N. 1. Perfect parity guaranteed.

Col. Fellows Opened Part L, Gen- Barron Jumped On and Off Street Capt. Fritsch and His Little Boat Cars with Amazing Agility.

Door When Discovered.

inditton when he was arraigned be ore Justice McMahon in the Yorkville Court to-day and remanded puttl to charge of attempted burgiary.

lives at 610 Eighth avenue, and for plied the Police Department with celluloid collars and cuffs. He is therefore Aug. 26 by the Atlantic Transport line well known to the members of of the

Shortly before 6 o'clock last evening Me into the apartments of J. Rozella, a comflat in the apartment house, 29 West

BABY'S BODY FOUND.

Either Thrown from a Train or Down a Vinduct.

At 9 o'clock this morning Policeman Precinct, found the dead body of a six of the New York Central Railroad under

The body of the child was wrapped in a towel. There were no marks by which it could be identified. It had evidently been dead a day or so. It was not learned whether it had been thrown to the Readers of Over 450,000 Worlds for 30 Cents, but To-Morrw is One of Those Days on "Boarders'" Ads.

Stimmel Injunction Dissolved. Justice Beart, of the Supreme Court, the

It Isn't Often that

14 Words Can be Said

IN THE NEW COURT, HOT CHASE FOR A FLAT THIEF. NINA NOT A WRECK.

Were Then Doing Well and Were 1,255 Miles from Queenstown.

Were Seen Aug. 26.

This News Dispels Fears Aroused by a Floating Derelict.

CITY ISLAND, Sept. 4.-The schools

Hue Hill, Me., for Philadelphia, with a cargo of paying stones, arrived to-day

COLORADO DEMOCRATS.

COLORADO DEMOCRATS.

Inited Convention for Free Silver and Against the A. P. A.

B. A. and Against the A. P. A.

B. A. and Against the A. P. A.

B. A. and also be a silver in the first of the strike in the control provided in the rest. P. A.

DENVER, Sept. 4. It was midnight when the United Democratic Conventions into head of the rest of the strike, but have the active support of the strike, but have the active support of the strike in the rest of the strike. But have the active support of the strike in the reduced to the strike in the strike in the strike. But have the active support of the strike in the strike in the strike in the strike in the strike. But have the active support of the strike in the strike in the strike in the strike. But have the active support of the strike in the strike in the strike in the strike. But have the active support of the strike, but have the active support of the strike, but have the active support of the strike, but have the active support of the strike. But have the active support of the strike, but have the active support of the strike, and the strike, and the substance of the Sulfing strike in the strike.

The carpenters' unions of the such the sulfing strike in the various trades engaged in erection that the carpenters are loiners were called in the loss where the 'unipping' synthetic strike, but have the active support of the strike, and the sulfing strike in the various trades engaged in erection that the carpenters are loiners were called in the loss where the 'unipping' synthetic are the sulfing at the loss where the 'unipping' synthetic are the sulfing at the loss where the 'unipping' synthetic are the sulfing at the loss where the 'unipping' synthetic are trades of the sulfing at the loss where the 'unipping' synthetic are trades of the sulfing at the loss where the 'unipping' synthetic are trades of the sulfing at the loss where the 'unipping' synthetic are trades of the sulfing at the loss where the 'unipping' synthetic are trades of the sulfing at the loss where

PRICE ONE CENT.

MORE MEN CALLED OUT.

Movement for Living Wages Rapidly Spreading Among Garment-Makers.

CARPENTERS VS. "LUMPERS."

Strikes Ordered on Many Sub-Contractors' Jobs During the Morning.

UNION RATES ARE DEMANDED.

Building Trade Unions Expected to Lend Their Support in the Struggle.

The exet side to-day bears a holiday aspect. The striking coat-makers fill the streets. Everywhere can be ots of men anxiously discussing the dituation. There is no rioting, no disrder, not even loud talking. Hope mingied with fear is stamped on every one the thousands of faces upon which Clinton and Delancey streets. the strikers were Harvey White, Auditor lation; Delegate Chuck, of the Boston Mass.) branch of the United Garment Workers and several members of the Ex-good of Tallors. The Executive Board of the United Brotherhood of Tailors, at its headquarters, 71 Suffolk street, is busy signng credentials for men from sweatshops where the strike has not yet been tials, each bearer of them returns to o case work in the name of the Execu

John Shay, Capt. Strocker, from East Union Cornenters Begin Their Pight for Regulation Wages.

The union curpenters began their orand reported that on Sept. 2, at 1.39 A. ganized battle this morning against the and reported that on Sept. 2, at 1.30 A. M., thirty miles south of Shinaccook Point, she was in collision with the British tank steamer Granje Prince, Capt Hewett, from New York for South Shields, Erg.

The Shay had her hewspirit, libbon cathead and all head gear carried away and was cut down close to the water's else. She is leaking at the rate of alout '90 strokes ner hour. The Shay came via Long Island Saimi, and made the trip without any headesits. She possed here in tow for New York, where the without any headesits. She possed here in tow for New York, where the videous contractors, or middle-men, are deprived of the prevailing rate of wages, like a fay.

John than and A. Schultze, Brother-hoof of American Carpenters and John the different unions as follows:

John than and A. Schultze, Brother-hoof of American Carpenters and John the strength of the Crante Print, if any, is slight, as she proceeded on her voyage. Dennis Cavamagn, United Order of Carappointed secretary and general

You read The Evening World:

Do you read the Sunday World:

The Relegates requested the carday. The Relegates requested the car-bet Jorden a San Brands W. Jordan Ex-Police Sergeant James W. Jordan

That story is made of whole cloth," said Mr. Wellman to-day,
"The fact is that a Philadelphia lady, visiting at the house of Editor Johnson, of The Century, lost a charm from her watch chain. They asked me to so to the station in her behalf."

That All Winter Boarder

(Continued on Second Page, )

is more apt to be lurking among the readers of the 450,000 Worlds that every Boarders Ad. reaches to-morrow (Boarders Day) than elsewhere. 14 words for 30 cents in all the Worlds to-morrow and he

Will Come

Your Way.